City Going on With Plan to Curb Welfare

NEWBURGH, N.Y. (AP) — Beneath the spotlight of national attention, this Hudson River community embarks Saturday on a stiff crackdown on welfare recipients.

The objective is to sweep the mounting relief rolls clear of chislers. But critics fear that many innocent persons may suffer. At stake is a principle of great importance in nearly every city in the land—the right of a municipality to regulate its own affairs, even though it accepts federal and state funds in support of some of its programs. The principle is one of home rule.

Behind the furor over welfare in Newburgh stands Joseph Mitchell, who became city manager here last October. Here is what he found in this city of 31,000 population:

Welfare costs have increased every year in the past decade, although the city lost population and taxpayers during the period. The city's welfare expenses had grown to $893,085 annually—larger than the combined cost of police and fire protection—out of a total budget of $3 million a year. One of every 20 residents of Newburgh was receiving city welfare aid of some sort.

In 1950, almost two-thirds of the relief clients were white. Last year, more than two-thirds were Negro. The white population of Newburgh during the decade declined by 13.6 per cent, while the number of nonwhites increased 51.4 per cent.

A citizens committee appointed by the City Council said the increasing Negro population resulted from an influx of migratory workers, with their families and relatives, mostly from the South. The committee said New York State, if not Newburgh itself, has gained a reputation in the South as a welfare haven for emigrants. Mitchell set out to do something about the situation. As he saw it, he had two alternatives—increase taxes or decrease welfare expenditures. He chose the latter.

On June 20, Mitchell, with the backing of the Republican-controlled City Council, announced the program for welfare cases effective July 15. Among other things, it cuts unwed mothers off relief if they continue to bear illegitimate children, and it requires able-bodied men on relief to work for the city 40 hours a week.

In the city itself, Democratic Mayor William Ryan and Orange County Democratic Chairman Sears Hunter fought the program. So did City Welfare Commissioner John O'Donnell who resigned Monday in protest.

On the state level, the State Welfare Board said the new regulations violated state and federal law and could jeopardize payment of federal welfare funds to every community in the state—a total of about $150 million a year.

The Newburgh branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People demanded a federal and state investigation, suggesting racial bias.

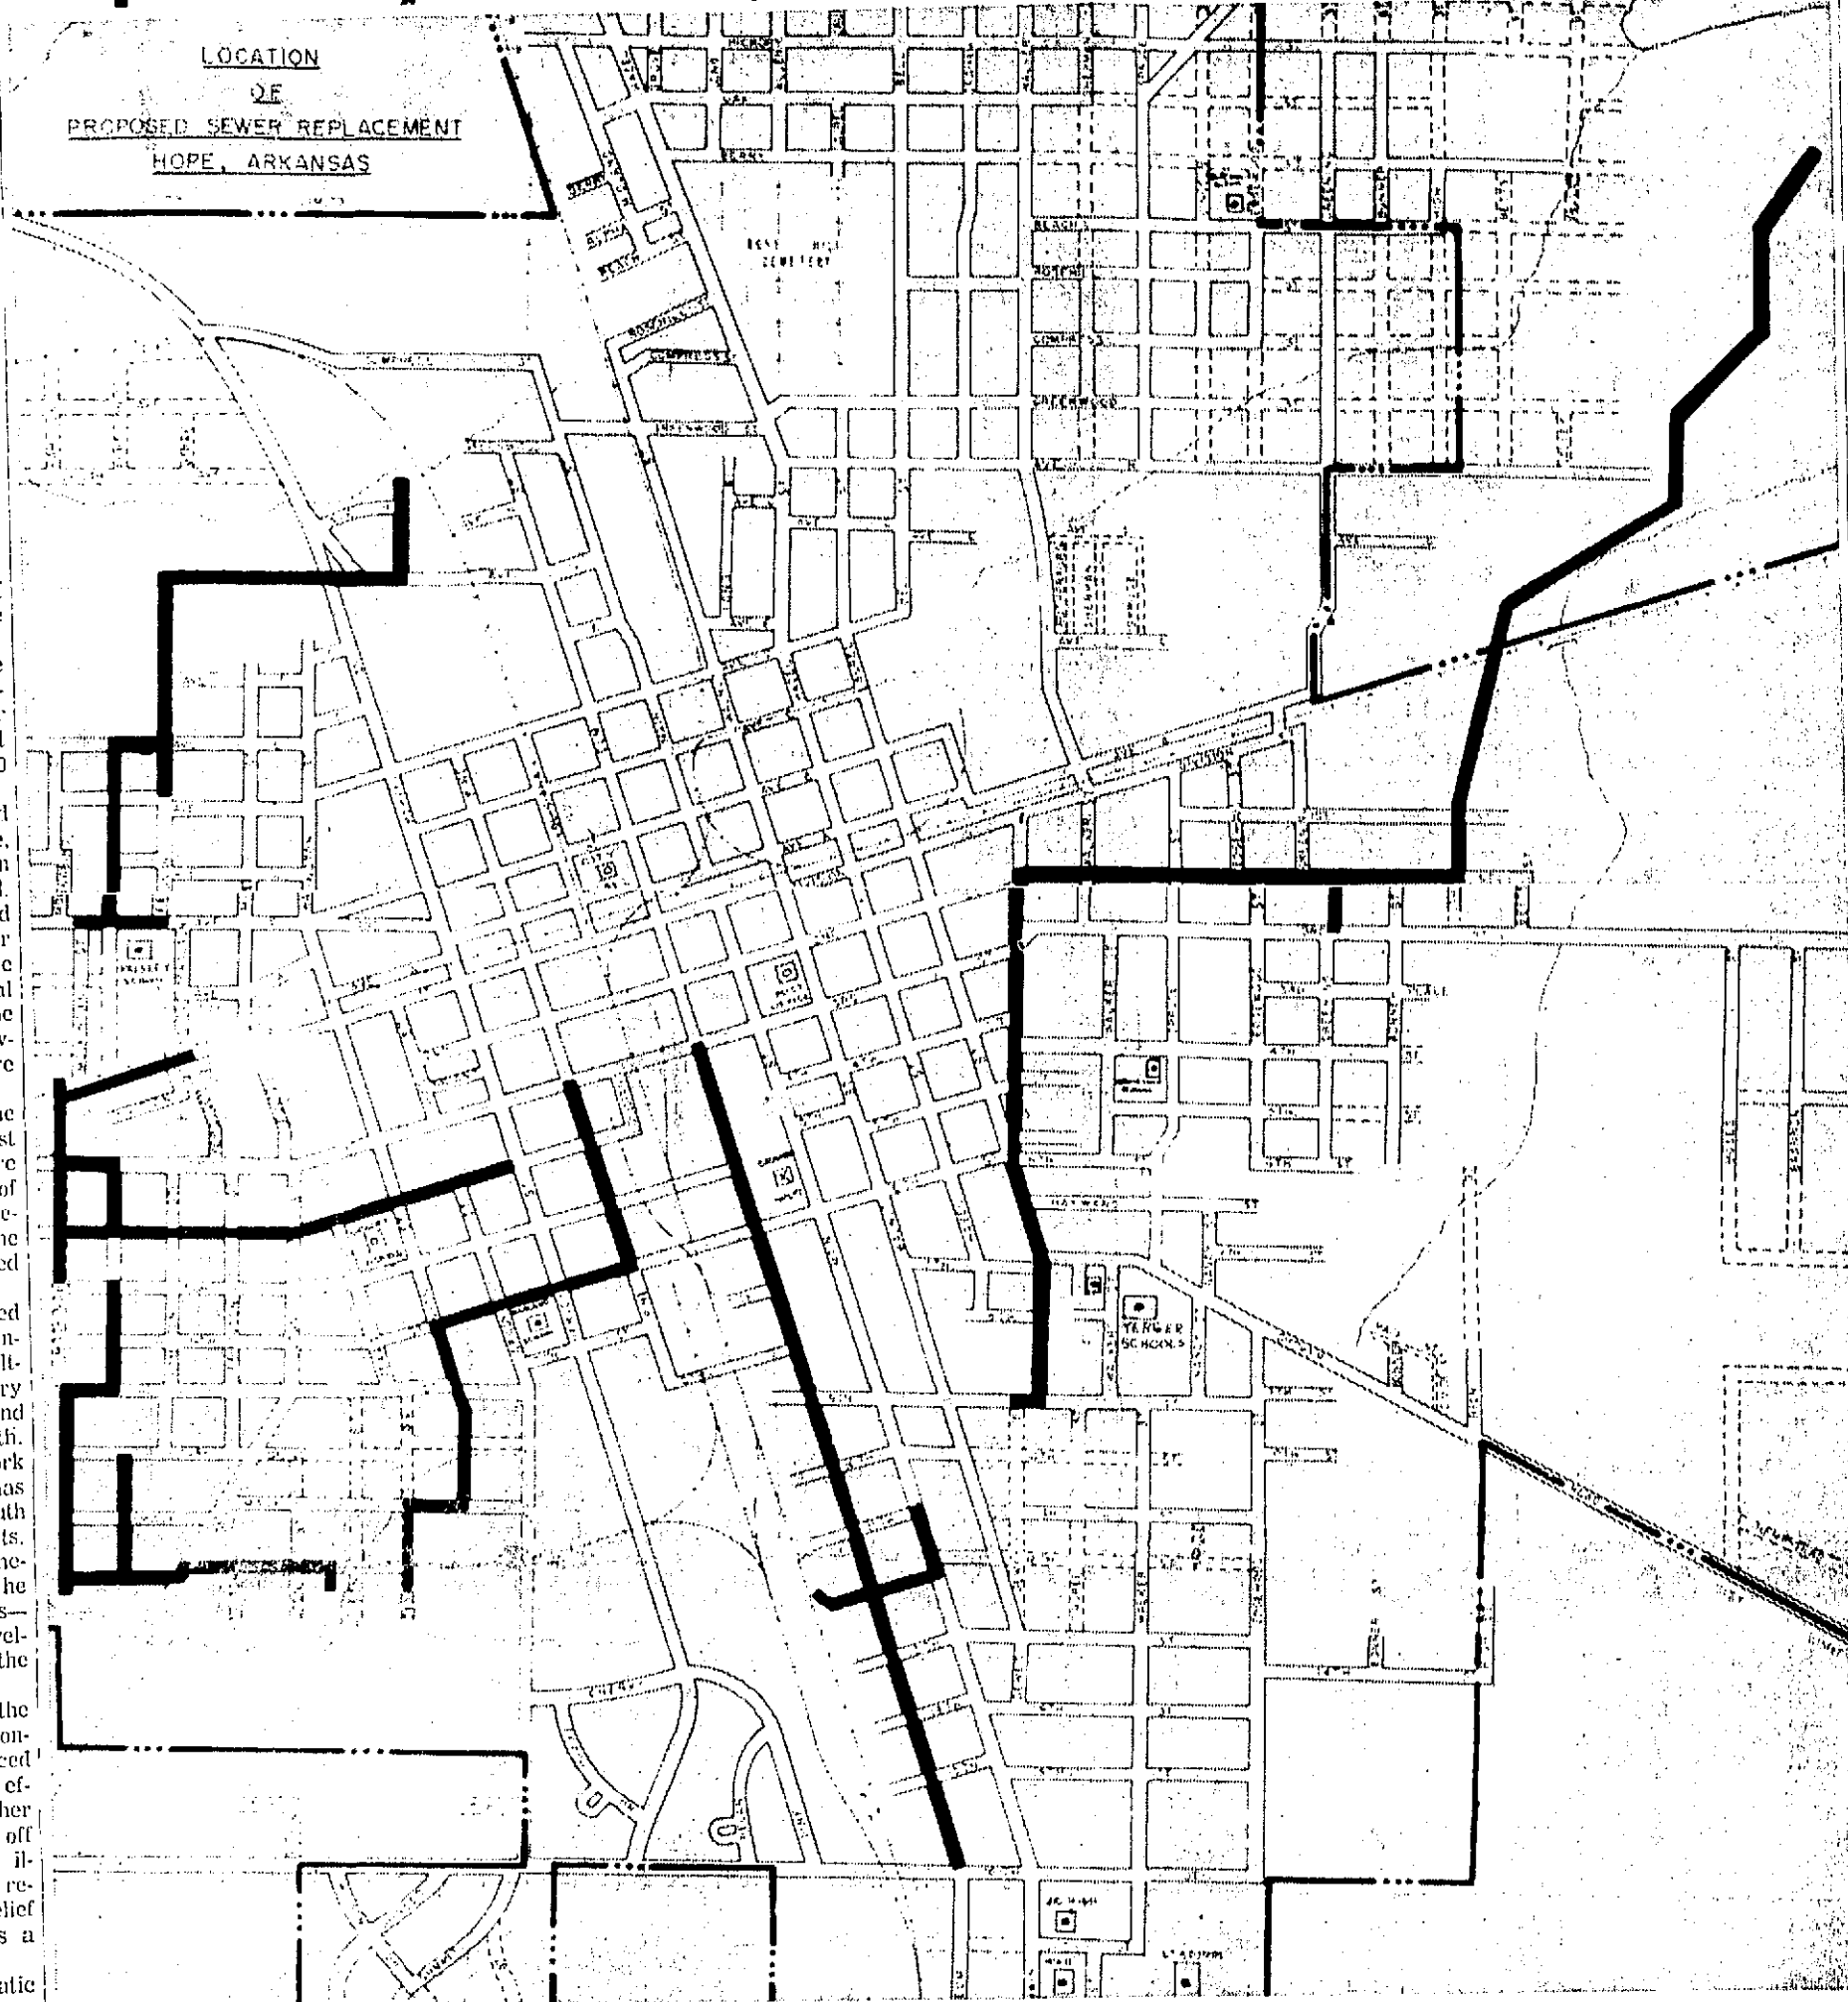

In the gathering force of the storm, Mitchell and the City Council stood firm.

The state social welfare commissioner Wednesday night ordered Newburgh to void its proposals. Mitchell refused, and a court action by the state against the city appeared likely.

Meanwhile, on the eve of inauguration of the new code, Mitchell revealed that home relief and dependent child welfare cases had dropped in the last month.

"Evidently some people have decided to get off the dole," he said.

Map of City's New $210,000 Sewer Line Project

THE 5 COLUMN MAP OF THE CITY ABOVE SHOWS the new sewer lines which the city is planning to install at a cost of $210,000. The heavy dark lines show the sewer lines to be replaced. This map was prepared by Engineers Hawkins and Hawkins.

City Directors Want to Tell Reasons for Sewage Fee Hike at Public Meeting on Monday

Mayor Frank Douglas said to requirements of the government day that he and the Board of City were met, the 4.25% interest Directors hope that a large group rate offered by private financing of interested citizens would at would be cheaper, the mayor said. In order to sell the bonds it proposed sewer rates set for 2:30 p. m., Monday, July 17, at City Hall.

The rate that has been proposed by the Board of Directors is the same as the present sewer service charge, except that the minimum for each residential user would be $1.25 per month, and the minimum for each commercial user would be $1.50 per month. The present sewer service charge is 25¢ of the months of November, December, and January. Under this rate the present residential service charge varies from 31¢ to $2.00, with the average charge being about 56¢. Present charges to commercial users varies from 31¢ to $10.00.

A large part of the trunk lines which were built with the original sewer system, and which now serves all the later additions, are in bad shape and must be replaced, the mayor said, and that the Board of Directors feel this would be the best way to finance the replacement. Because of the size and the cost of replacing the old lines will greatly reduce the cost of maintaining the sewer system. Aside from the inconvenience of stopped-up sewer lines and the health hazard of having sewage getting out on top of the ground, it is expensive to repair the broken mains, the mayor said.

The cost of replacing the old mains is estimated at $210,000. The City Directors invited some of the investment companies to make proposals, and the best offer was for an interest rate of 4.25%, which offered included the cost of printing the bonds, legal opinions, etc. The city could have obtained the money from the federal government at 4%, but the thing that has gone into this program legal expenses and other program.

MUSKEGON, Mich. (AP)—The Norge Division of Borg-Warner Corp. will pay $750,000 in severance benefits to employees when it moves its plant to Fort Smith, Ark., July 31.

Workers who will be jobless when the move occurs voted 603 to 134 Thursday to accept the severance agreement, negotiated by management and Local 401 of the Allied Industrial Workers Union.

Norge has offered employment at Fort Smith to 175 long-time employees plus 14 handicapped workers. Only those among Norge's 1,500 work force at its Muskegon Heights plant can retain their jobs.

Riders Cause No Trouble at Shreveport

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — Four "freedom riders"—two Negroes and two whites—arrived here at a bus station sealed off by police and departed to the homes of friends without trying to test segregated facilities.

There was no violence.

The riders told newsmen they expected to continue to New Orleans later but did not specify when they would leave.

Rev. John Raines, 27, a white Methodist minister of Setauket, N.Y., said the group would "spend some time in Shreveport if the social climate is favorable."

The other three riders were Bliss Ann Malone, 23, of St. Louis; Mrs. Janet Reinitz, 23, New York; white; and Rev. B. Elton Cox, 30, High Point, N.C. Negro, a field secretary of Congress of Racial Equality.

About a half hour before the riders were scheduled to arrive from Little Rock, where they were arrested Monday night, 50 police and deputy sheriffs stationed themselves in and around the station. They cleared all persons without tickets from the waiting room.

Some 100 spectators watched from across the street. When the riders arrived, Public Safety Commissioner J. Earl Downs and Police Chief Hickey Tansley spoke with them briefly.

The four travelers then talked briefly to newsmen and departed in two cars. They were not by two Negroes.

The riders did not enter the station. The crowd did not jeer or molest them in any way.

The four riders earlier were released from jail in Little Rock after they agreed to stop tests of bus station facilities in Arkansas in exchange for suspension of all sentences and fines.

JFK's son Owns Silver Whistles

WASHINGTON (AP)—The President's 7-month-old son, John F. Kennedy Jr., now owns two silver rattles which also can be used as whistles.

The versatile toys were the gifts of President Ayub Khan of Pakistan, here for a state visit. The Kennedys' daughter, Caroline, 3, received a big Pakistani doll.

For President Kennedy the state visitor brought two Pakistani rugs, and for Mrs. Kennedy a painting of a Pakistani woman.

Youths Are Sentenced by Judge Brown

Several sentences have been handed down by Judge Lyle Brown in Hempstead Circuit Court here.

Dave Hartridge, Don Honea and James Looney were given three-year suspended sentences in the penitentiary because of their ages. Billy Wayne Looney, 15, also of Camden, was placed under supervision of the Ouachita County child welfare worker and is to report back to Judge Brown on Sept. 25. The sentenced boys were placed under supervision of the parole board. They were sentenced in connection with the June 5 break-in at Hope's municipal swimming pool.

Jim Dunkin and Harold King, Jr., Texarkana, Texas, pleaded nolo contendere to breaking into the cabin of Dr. R. K. Harrison at McNab on May 1. A hearing on their home life, past records, etc., of both boys, ages 18, was held and Judge Brown placed them on probation with each to report back to the judge.

Cliff Richardson, charged with grand larceny in connection with the theft of bundles from Bruner-Hendry Handle Co., received a three-year suspended sentence on good behavior if he pays value of the property $500, within 90 days. Alfred Earl Hartline received five years suspended sentence for assault to kill. Previously Hartline had been committed as an alcoholic and appeared before the court with recommendations of sobriety presently, and is asking care of his family at Fulton.

George Andrew Williams, Russell, forgery and uttering, three years suspended sentence. He was charged with cashing a check of a fellow worker. He made full restitution and paid costs.

Johnny Lee Killey, Jr., was sentenced to five years in prison and revoked a sentence handed down in Miller county. He was also given a five-year suspended sentence. Killey was paroled recently from the Arkansas penitentiary after serving part of a one-year sentence for grand larceny.

Killey, Otth Phillips, Jr., 18, and William Briley, 18, of Texarkana, were arrested July 1 in connection with the burglary of Logan's station and store at Fulton.

Rusk Threatens Veto to Halt Red Blast at UN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk today blasted back at Soviet Premier Khrushchev's attacks on the United Nations and threatened a U.S. veto if necessary to block Khrushchev's proposals for U.N. changes.

Speaking with the advance approval of President Kennedy, Rusk charged that Khrushchev is attacking the system of "equal right and equal opportunities" which all nations in the world league now possess.

Noting that Khrushchev had said the U.N. is heading for "ruin and death" unless it is changed, Rusk declared:

"No one else wants the 'ruin and death' of the United Nations."

The statement was issued at the State Department by Assistant Secretary of State Harlan Cleveland on behalf of Rusk. Press officer Lincoln White said the declaration had the approval of Kennedy.

Cleveland said the United States, by threatening the veto against any application of Khrushchev's "trika" formula is seeking to prevent other nations from trying to work out a compromise between the Soviet position and the vast majority of the U.N. membership which he said is opposed to the Soviet position.

Minden, La. Lass Takes Beauty Title

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — "My daddy will probably faint when he hears this," said Sharon Brown moments after she was crowned Miss U.S.A. "He thought I should improve my carriage. That's why I went to modeling school."

Roy Brown, a contractor, had not come to watch his daughter compete in the beauty pageant, and Sharon was anxious to break away from the well wishers to phone home the news.

"I think I'll call collect," she said and laughed through her tears at her joke.

The 18-year-old brunette from Minden, La., won the right Thursday night to represent the nation against 47 foreign entries for the Miss Universe title. The last 90 minutes of the two-day competition will be televised nationally Saturday night.

Sharon, at 5-feet-7, was one of the tallest of the 43 girls who competed in the Miss U.S.A. contest. At 26-23-36, she also was one of the most plentifully endowed.

She has been a model and beauty contest winner since February 1960 when she won the "Miss South Show" crown at Waterproof, then her home town. Sharon has just completed her freshman year at Louisiana Tech, where she is majoring in speech and drama. She expects her parents, and possibly her three younger brothers, to fly here for the Miss Universe judging.

A newsmen asked her what she was going to do with the $1,000 she had won.

"What," she cried, "you mean I've won $1,000. I didn't read about that. I have no idea what I'll do with it."

Sharon was chosen to succeed Linda Bement of Salt Lake City, Utah, last year's Miss U.S.A. and Miss Universe, from five girls who reached the finals.

The four runners-up, in this order, were Pamela Stettler, 18, of San Rafael, Calif.; Karen Weller, 18, of Las Vegas Nev.; Alexa Currey, 22, New York City; and Suelien Robinson, 19, of Fairfax Ala.

Daisies and roses decorated the home where the party was held. The honoree, who wore a yellow summer frock, pinned a white carnation corsage at her shoulder. The hostesses presented her a gift of crystal in her chosen pattern. In the dining room the guests were served from a table centered with pink daisies and pink candles. Cold drinks and an assortment of delicious tidbits were enjoyed.

Assisting in serving were Miss

Judy Robins, Miss Sherry Lynn Jerry Garrett.

EXOTIC—Peacock feathers, butterflies and ornate fans furnished design ideas for these sunglasses, first shown in Paris. They can double as costume masks.

KNOCKING THE ROCK—It may never achieve the popularity of the revived rocking chair but this Porter's Chair displayed at the Chicago Home Furnishings Show has its points. The enclosed, curved back, something like a sedan chair's, protected occupants from drafts for centuries. The one photographed is as modern as model Irene Simonaitis' costume, even to foam rubber cushions.

U.S. Plans a White Paper on Berlin

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration is preparing a "white paper" on Berlin to dramatize before the world the repeated efforts of the Western powers to reach agreement with the Soviet Union on a German peace settlement.

As U.S. officials presently see the Berlin crisis, the dispute between the Western powers and the Soviet Union over the future of West Berlin is now in a propaganda warfare phase with both sides using public speeches and statements to influence world opinion.

One of Soviet Premier Khrushchev's insistent arguments has been that action is long overdue to eliminate what he calls the vestiges of World War II in Germany.

He has proposed that the Western powers withdraw their force of about 11,000 men from West Berlin and give it the status of a "free city"—that is, a city without Western troops in it. Failing that, he has threatened to sign a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany by the end of this year with the claim that this would wipe out Western rights with respect to West Berlin.

The United States, after weeks of consultation with Britain, West Germany and France, plans to send a note to Moscow by the middle of next week rejecting Khrushchev's demand and warning anew that the Western powers will not yield any of their rights to be in Berlin or to have access to the city across East Germany.

ABC Rules on Beverage Sales

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The State Alcohol Beverage Control Board Thursday outlawed, effective Sept. 1, sale of malt liquor and "stout" beer, except at liquor outlets.

Any beverage with a per cent or more alcohol will have to be labeled as to alcoholic content. Ted R. Christy, ABC attorney, said regular beer has from 3.2 to 4 per cent alcohol.

The board also decreed that any beverage with less than a per cent alcohol cannot be called malt liquor.

Some beer outlets have been selling malt liquor, which is not now generally labeled as to alcoholic content.

Members of Club Don't Want Faubus

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The national president of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs says some opposition has developed to Gov. Orval E. Faubus' scheduled appearance before the group's national convention.

Miss Fannie Hardy of Little Rock, head of the National BPW and also assistant state insurance commissioner, said she invited Faubus to speak at the convention to be held July 23-27 in Chicago.

She did so, she added, not only because he was governor and her employer, but because she felt he had done much to advance women in positions of responsibility in Arkansas.

Miss Hardy said one official BPW protest came from the Executive Board of the New York State BPW organization. It said in a telegram that Faubus' appearance could have a damaging effect on the group's public relations.

Another objecting organization, she said, is the Human Relations Council of Nutley, N.J., which on June 7 wrote Miss Hardy to protest Faubus' appearance. The council said it regarded Faubus as an exponent of racism and segregation. She said a few other organizations and other BPW clubs had filed protests with the national organization.

Winners in State Beauty Contest

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Jane Anderson of Pine Bluff gained a swim-suit competition victory and Mary Eldridge of Augusta achieved a talent division triumph Thursday night in the second preliminary round of the Miss Arkansas pageant.

They joined Carol Anne Holland of Huntsville and Lindsay May Riggan of Leola in the ranks of the preliminary winners, and therefore the unofficial favorites in Saturday night's final judging.

The third and last preliminary round is set tonight.

The girls also are judged on evening gown appearances, but preliminary results in that category are not announced.

Miss Anderson, 19, who is Miss Pine Bluff, is a hazel-eyed ash blonde who stands 5-9 and weighs 126. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson of Pine Bluff.

Miss Eldridge, 21, Miss University of Arkansas, sang two songs from the musical Kiss Me Kate in the talent competition Thursday night. She has brown hair and green eyes and is the daughter of John Eldridge of Augusta.

Miss Holland, who is competing as Miss Fayetteville, won the first round talent award and Miss Riggan, who is MISS Henderson State Teachers College, won the first round swim suit trophy.

Each of the 42 contestants competes in all three categories in the preliminaries. The ones who modeled swim suits Thursday night, for instance, compete in another division tonight.

DOROTHY DIX
He Can't Live With Himself

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I fell in love at 16 with a man 10 years older. Mother refused to give her consent to our marriage. In the hope of changing her mind we deliberately had a baby and still she refused to permit me to marry this man who loved me as much as I him. Eventually he married another and so did I. My husband and I have eight children but he loves this daughter of my first romance as if she were his own. Now she wants to meet her real father. Do you think this advisable? He has never communicated with either of us but lately I have dreamt of him and awakened with the sense that he had only a short while to live. Fifteen years have elapsed since last we met. His wife knows our story as does my husband. Our daughter is older than her 15 years and is studying to be a missionary. I wouldn't leave my husband for all the gold in the world, or a dozen men like the father of my oldest girl. The interlude with him is closed as far as I'm concerned. All I can say is that I profited by the mistake. —Mother - Who - Wants - to - do - Right

My dear: Out of loyalty to the man you married, both you and your daughter should let the past bury the past. If a meeting between father and child should ever come about naturally, well and good but, don't seek trouble. The break with yesterday should be clean and sharp. For this reason, social agencies advise against flesh and blood parents seeing their child once it has been placed for adoption. The wear and tear on the emotions is too great.

Dear Helen: We have taught our small daughter to call her grandparents "Grandmother" and "Grandfather." Now they (my husband's parents) want us to make her address them as "Grandma" and "Grandpa." Is it necessary to needlessly confuse our little girl by asking her to do so? —Mrs. C.

Dear Mrs. E.: The switch in names isn't going to affect your little girl one way or the other and it's sure to please her grandparents. Learn the art of getting along with your in-laws by conforming gracefully. It makes life easier for all concerned, especially your husband, whose peace of mind should be your first consideration.

Dear Helen: My parents don't respect my privacy. They listened in on my phone conversations. Every time my girl friend and I start talking about boys they yell, "Hang-up. Give the telephone a rest for Pete's sake." I know other 14-year olds who have the same trouble. —A.K.

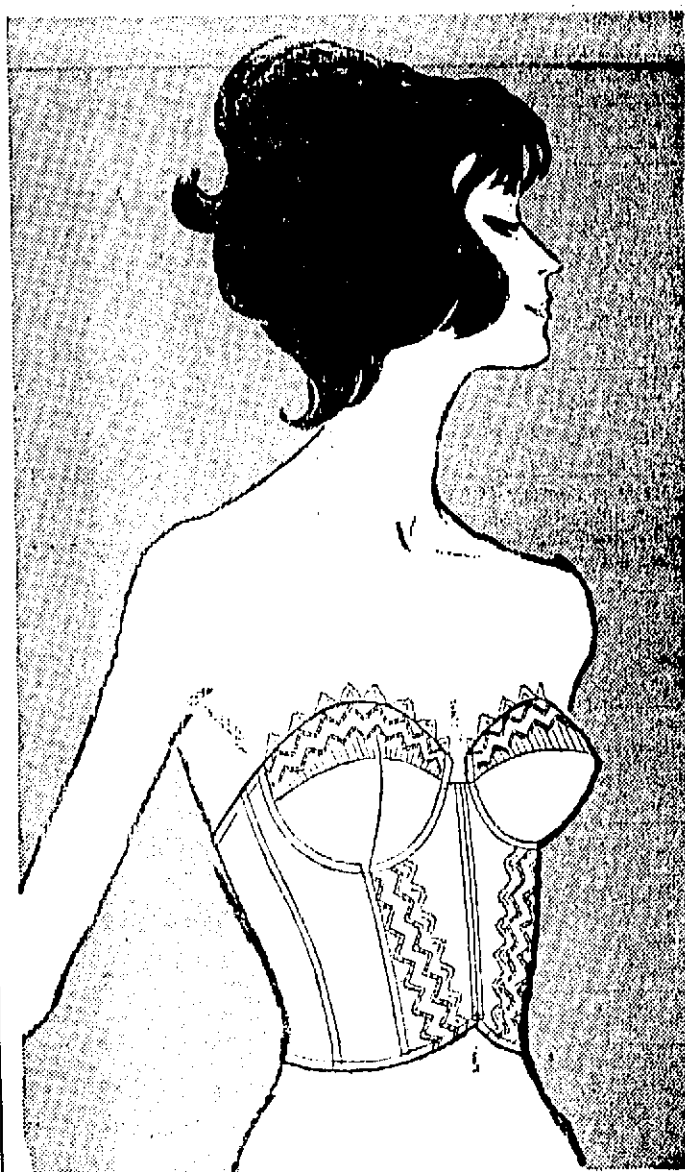

Dear A.K.: I waited 15 minutes outside a phone booth yesterday while a teenager discussed the boys with a girl friend. Only after offering her a dime to call her friend back did she reluctantly give me a break. So, my sympathies are with the parents whose teenage children suffer from telephonic. Set aside a definite time each week for receiving and making calls, and out of consideration to others, keep them short.

Send your problems to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Stepchildren."

WHO PUTS MORE ROOFS OVER OUR HEADS?

There is no country in the world where so many families own homes of their own as the United States... over 28,000,000 or 61 per cent of all American families. For 130 years Savings and Loan Associations have been putting roofs over our heads. The convenient method of monthly payments for repaying home loans like rent was developed by Savings and Loan Associations. Today Insured Savings and Loan Associations finance more homes than all other financial institutions combined.
